1. I have given you the land into My hand. I have given you the land into My hand. I have given My land to My hand for My body, My Father. I love you. I give you Me and all comes to an end, not. For, yea, I have just begun. See what I have said.
2. See what I have said and limit Me not to catchy phrases, clichés and trysts of the past. I love you. I reticulate (1) you now on shores many, shores all; no shores withstanding My love. Yea, all bow before Me. I love you.
3. I've given you My hand.
4. I've given you the land.
5. I give you the plan now, forthwith, to march forward, yea, flying with Me and My loved ones, into, with, for, with, forthwith, the priesthood of all believers.
6. See what I am saying and realize that I have forsaken not, that I am bringing into being all that is within Me, all in you, All in All, all for each other; notwithstanding those who would demise and sink their teeth into what I am doing and rabid be. But you will see Me come forth in glory not, yea, glory in all. You will see Me coming forth in My glorious body, yea, arrayed head to toe, in My flesh, being My flesh, being Me. I love you. My identity known, comprehended, walked in, exercised; exorcised, not possible. I love you. I give you Me.
7. Technology comes, and technology masters; who master now the sentences and statements, yea, that I bring forth from their own pen, pen and paper, yellow tablets, to start with. Yea, My plan for them, My technological plan, pathological not, yea, heart-o-logical, heart-illogical for some. But many, most, will see all of Me, all of Me they desire; in, yea their mirror and what I proclaim to them.
8. Think Me not strong, I have only begun. My strength retain and, yea see and strengthen for Me and My body. I love you. My weak ones come, My strong, so many. I love you. Good day.

Footnote:

1. Reticulate: to form a net or network.
